

American Popular Song Society

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP 2020-21

The American Popular Song Society (APSS) began as New York Sheet Music Society with a small but dedicated group of collectors, who met at The Songwriters' Hall of Fame Headquarters (through the courtesy of its President, the late Sammy Cahn) to exchange sheet music and stories about songwriters, singers and songs. From the start the meetings were lively affairs and they continue to be to this very day.

You can hear and learn about all genres of music of the past and the new standards being created today!

Where else can you socialize each month and mingle with music insiders who include singers, producers, dancers, musicians, historians, journalists, composers, publishers, entertainers, and enthusiasts to see remarkable shows on all aspects of the music industry? These unique musical programs and entertainment are produced especially for APSS and include today's top talent.

Our past Award winning programs have included shows (to name only a few) about Frank Sinatra, Ella Fitzgerald, Judy Garland, Sarah Vaughn, Duke Ellington, the creation of Broadway shows, legendary songwriters such as Harold Arlen, Charles Strouse, Jule Styne and many more including our famed New Songwriter's Showcase each spring.

CLEARLY, THE BIGGEST BARGAIN IN TOWN!

We meet:

- The second Saturday of the month from October - June
- Program starts 12:00 p.m. followed by networking, Q and A with a 2:00 p.m. ending

A NEW MEETING LOCATION  343 W 46th St, NYC.

- Annual Dues: $60 individual, $80 for a couple, ($15 non-member guest fee at door)
- With the annual membership you get to see 9 amazing shows and receive 9 fabulous and informative Newsletters
